

RED MASK PLAYERS
(DANVILLE'S LITTLE THEATRE GROUP)

Present

Personal Appearance

BY LAWRENCE RILEY

PRODUCED WITH SPECIAL PERMISSION OF SAMUEL FRENCH

Y. W. C. A. AUDITORIUM

Wednesday, November 17, 1943
8:15 P. M.

DIRECTED BY KATHRYN RANDOLPH
ASSISTED BY NORMA WALKER

CAST

As the play opens, the audience has just witnessed the Benjamin Z. Fineberg talking picture "Drifting Lady" starring Carole Arden (Honore Ronan.)

On the Stage

CAROLE ARDEN, IN PERSON

IN THE PLAY

Gladys Kelcey.....	Pat Chamberlain
Aunt Kate Barnaby.....	Kate Shakadey
Joyce Struthers.....	Margaret Ewing
Chester Norton (Bud).....	Leonard Waller
Mrs. Struthers (Addie).....	Charlotte Ellis
Clyde Pelton.....	Richard Newman
Gene Tuttle.....	E. K. Wolgamot
Johnson.....	Stephen Duch
Carole Arden.....	Honore Ronan
Jessie.....	Ruth Tuggle

SYNOPSIS

ACT ONE

Scene I. The audience is in the Grand Theatre in Scranton, Pennsylvania. An evening in October, during the personal appearance of motion picture star Carole Arden, whose film DRIFTING LADY, has just been shown.

Scene II. The living room of the Struthers' house between Scranton and Wilkesbarre on Route Six. The following afternoon.

ACT TWO

Scene I. The living room. A half hour later.

Scene II. The living room. One o'clock the next morning.

ACT THREE

The living room. Nine o'clock that day.

PROPERTIES AND COSTUMES

Martha Kilgore

Estella Ashba

Jean Griffin

Irene Downey

Geneva Smith

MAKE-UP

Peg Adams

Jane Loveless

Frances Watkins

CASTING

Mary Muler

Ruth Tuggle

USHERS

Alice Wolff

Lois Woodbeck

COURTESIES

Fischer Theatre Management

Hotel Wolford

Y. W. C. A.