From The Director . . .

I like this play; I like the cast and crew who've worked hard to bring you this production. WATCH OUT!! We're here to surprise you and keep you guessing. Please don't reveal the plot to your friends and neighbors who may be coming to the show after you. Let them be as mystified as we hope you will be. We'll be listening for your laughter, your gasps, your murmurs, and finally your applause!

Director . . .

BARBARA STOVER

"I was born about 10,000 years ago . . .
And there's nothing in this world that I don't know.
For Red Mask I did act,
I'm on the Board and that's a fact.
And now I really hope you like this show.*"

(Ed. Note: Barbara would have included that she's a Speech and English teacher, but she couldn't find a rhyme for Danville Area Community College. The acting she refers to includes Harvey and On Golden Pond.)

Stage Manager . . .

BENN DARNER

Benn has been involved at Red Mask in some capacity for every production since The Secret Affairs of Mildred Wild in 1979. He has done props, served as House Manager, and is currently Chairman of Red Mask's Publicity, Newsletter, and Marquee activity! Deathtrap is his second Stage Managing job. He previously handled that task for A Majority of One. Benn is also equally active with and serves on the Board of Directors of Danville Light Opera. On stage he appeared several seasons ago as the butler in Red Mask's The Very Great Grandson of Sherlock Holmes (but he didn't do it!).

Producer . . .

ALFREDA KLINGENSMITH

In addition to working with Danville Light Opera, Sunshine II, and Christian Arts Productions, Freda has been actively involved at Red Mask for seven years. She has appeared in The Sunshine Boys; Play It Again, Sam; Born Yesterday; and The Effects of Gamma Rays on Man-In-The-Moon Marigolds. She has been Producer for 6 Rms Riv Vu and Heaven Can Wait and has served as Stage Manager for Janus, The Best Man, Harvey, and Tribute. By day Alfreda is the bookkeeper for IFCO — NAPA Auto Supply in Danville and is director of the Catlin United Methodist Choir.

On Stage . . .

BOB TOLLIVER (Sidney): A two-time Katy winner, Bob brings a long list of credits with him into Deathtrap. His Katy's are for his roles in last season's Tribute and for The Impossible Years. Other stage credits include Harvey, Born Yesterday, Don't Drink the Water, and A Thousand and Clowns. Bob has also performed in many behind-the-scenes capacities including several seasons as Red Mask's publicity chairman. He is a Past President and former Board Member at Red Mask and is employed at Steel Craft Products Co. in Covington.

DEBBIE TOLLIVER (Myra): Debbie's very varied stage credits in Danville include roles as Mrs. Savage in Curious Savage, Mildred Wild in The Secret Affairs of Mildred Wild, and Essie in A Majority of One with Red Mask and as the Coffin Maker's Wife in Oliver with Danville Light Opera. She is the Head Librarian at the Danville Area Community College Learning Resources Center, is a past Board Member at Red Mask, and is involved in numerous community activities.

J. SCOTT EISENHAUER (Clifford): Deathtrap is Scott's second Red Mask production this season. He appeared as Jonathan Harker in the summer production of Dracula. He has also performed in two Red Mask children's shows, 13 Danville High School productions, and 3 Danville Light Opera performances. Scott is currently a student at Danville Area Community College where he is President of Student Government. He is not married (take note!) and is the son of Harry and Jeanne Eisenhauer (and the brother of Julie!).

FALL CHILDREN'S PLAY

To Be Announced
September 30, Oct. 1, 1983

FINISHING TOUCHES

Comedy by Jean Kerr
November 4, 5, 11, 12, 13, 17, 18, & 19, 1983

Katy and Jeff Cooper have three sons, a comfortable suburban home, and the prospect of a full professorship for Jeff. But somehow the bloom has worn off their marriage. The ensuing action triggers the hilarious chain of events which form the central action of the play. The resultant crises are resolved in due course with all the skill, taste, and perceptive humor which are Jean Kerr's hallmarks.

WHOSE LIFE IS IT ANYWAY?

Drama by Brian Clark
January 27, 28, February 3, 4, 5, 9, 10, & 11, 1984

Claire Harrison, a young sculptor, has been paralyzed by a car accident and must remain institutionalized to receive life-sustaining care. She is overwhelmed by the fact that she has lost control of her life and, despite her physician who is determined to preserve Claire's life regardless of the quality, demands the right to end a life she no longer finds endurable. Attorneys, medical personnel, and a judge join in the battle to determine — whose life is it anyway?

THE PAISLEY CONVERTIBLE

Comedy by Harry Cauley
April 6, 7, 13, 14, 15, 19, 20, & 21, 1984

Charlie and Amy Rodgers are newlyweds, happily married until his old girl friend, Sylvia, her old boy friend, Ralph, and her mother, Meg, show up. One misunderstanding leads to another until the young couple walk out on each other. But Meg, with the help of Ralph and Sylvia, comes up with a perfect solution to bring them back together.

A Word From The President...

Welcome to Red Mask's spring play Deathtrap. It has been gratifying to see so many of you at all the plays this season. It is good to know we have been able to find plays that have brought you enjoyment. You will find a coupon in this program with which you can renew your membership for next year. As last year, we have decided to keep the prices the same. Won't you take a moment to fill out the coupon and become a member for another season?

We have now decided on the plays and dates for next season. We are looking for directors, so if you are interested, or know someone who might be, please send in your resume.

This is the last play of this season. However, there will be a summer play in July. My term as president is coming to an end, and I would like to thank everyone for their help in making my two years as president very satisfying ones.

It has been awhile since we have presented a mystery. Barbara Stover and her cast and crew have put together a production which will keep you in suspense and guessing until the very end. We hope you will enjoy it!

Summer Show . . .

SAME TIME, NEXT YEAR

Tryouts have been scheduled for May 15 and 17, 1983, at 7:30 p.m. for Red Mask's summer production of the hit comedy Same Time, Next Year by Bernard Slade. The two-person cast will be directed by Liz Miller, and production dates are July 15, 16, 17, 21, 22, and 23, 1983. The story involves Doris and George . . . two people who are happily married, but not to each other. They meet once a year over a span of 25 years, and the play reflects the changes that take place in the characters — and society at large — during those years.
