From The Director . . .

The cast and crew of Heaven Can Wait again brings together both a number of seasoned Red Maskers and several "first timers." This is the part of directing I like the best — again working with some of the dedicated thespians in our organization whose talents I respect so much, and also making a number of new acquaintances and giving our audiences the opportunity to see their talents on our stage.

Heaven Can Wait is a repeat for our organization, having been previously produced on the Palace stage. Some in our audience may remember seeing or even performing in the play at that time. By updating a few names and dates we have brought the action to the present, and hope you will enjoy this "oldie but goodie" as much as we have enjoyed preparing and now performing it.

Director . . .

LIZ MILLER

Heaven Can Wait marks the sixth Red Mask production for which Liz has served as Director. Her others include Monique, Curious Savage, Ten Little Indians, Don't Drink the Water, and Born Yesterday. A past President and currently a member of the Board of Directors, Liz has served in a number of backstage capacities. She has also exhibited her talents on stage in numerous productions including Black Chiffon, Send Me No Flowers, Delicate Balance, Blithe Spirit, Last of the Red Hot Lovers, and last season's One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest. Liz is a Speech Clinician at Douglas and Fairchild Schools and has a son, Matt, and daughter, Marti.

Stage Managers . . .

MARYILLN AND BILL SCHATZ

Both the Schatzes are dedicated Red Maskers of more than 20 years. Maryilln confines her activities to behind the scenes where she has done props and costumes, served as ticket chairman for several years, and has served on the Play Selection Committee. She and Bill were Co-Chairmen of last season's Membership Campaign.

Bill also has worked in practically every backstage capacity as well as serving several terms on the Board and a term as Red Mask President. He has also been on stage in more than a dozen plays including Calculated Risk (for which he received a Katy), The Secret Affairs of Mildred Wild, and as Dale Harding in last season's One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest.

In addition to their Red Mask involvement, Maryilln is a secretary at E. R. Bean Company and Bill is a counselor at Danville High School. They have two children, Susie and Bill.

Producer . . .

ALFREDA KLINGENSMITH

Alfreda is in her seventh season with Red Mask and has performed a number of roles both on stage and off. She has been a Producer and Stage Manager, and she has appeared on stage in The Sunshine Boys, Play It Again, Sam, The Effect of Gamma Rays on Man-In-The-Moon Marigolds, and last season's Born Yesterday. She also appeared recently with the Amalgamated Unicorns in Androcles and the Lion. At present, Alfreda is self-employed as a piano teacher.

A Word From The President...

Welcome to Red Mask's 1981-82 season. Your response to our membership drive has been very gratifying. We are delighted to have so many with us this season. We welcome all of you and our new members as well.

Red Mask is you — our audience — and we try to find plays we think you will enjoy. The play selection committee is reading plays now and will be making their recommendations in a few months for the plays we will be presenting next season. If you have any suggestions you would like us to consider, please let us know.

Heaven Can Wait is a large cast. There are many newcomers in the cast and crews along with veteran Red Maskers. They combine to bring you a most enjoyable production. So sit back, relax, and enjoy as Liz Miller, her cast and crew, bring you Heaven Can Wait.

DON MEEKER

On Stage . . .

JIM KNOBLAUCH (Joe Pendleton): Since coming to Danville barely a year ago, Jim has been very active in theatrical circles. Last season he portrayed the roguish Randall Patrick McMurphy in One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest, for which he won a Katy. The past summer he appeared as Paul Bratter in the Sunshine II production of Barefoot in the Park. Jim is a news reporter for WDAN-WDNL and enjoys Tom Robbins novels, Hoagy Carmichael tunes, blackberry brandy, and Barney Miller re-runs. You'll note he doesn't list playing the saxophone as one of his hobbies!

FRED LEGG (Mr. Jordan): Another of last season's Katy Award winners for his role in One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest, Fred played Scanlon, the mad bomber, in that production. This summer he appeared as Henry, the old actor, in Sunshine II's The Fantasticks. Fred is Maintenance Foreman at the V.A. Medical Center and enjoys tennis and golf. He and his wife have three daughters and one son.

BILL BRANDY (Messenger 7013): Bill was active in high school and college dramatics and played the barber last spring in Born Yesterday. He is Chief of Audiology and Speech Pathology at the V.A. Medical Center and his wife, Maryann, is a senior in journalism at the University of Illinois. They have two sons — Steve, a freshman at Danville High School, and Matt, a fourth grader. Bill says he's played a lot of characters, but this is the first time he's ever been "a number"!

SUE ANN CRICK (Julia Farnsworth): Sue Ann also made her Red Mask debut last season in Cuckoo's Nest as Nurse Flinn. Her husband, Ron, owns Castle's Business Equipment Company and is a Katy winner for A Majority of One. They have two children — Joshua, age 5, and Jennifer, age 3. Besides Red Mask, Sue Ann is active with the Danville Symphony Guild, Lakeview Junior Board, and the Junior Service Club.

JACK DONOVAN (Tony Abbott): Originally from Pontiac, Illinois, Jack was a member of the Board of Vermillion Players for 12 years. His previous roles include George in Our Town, Paul in Barefoot in the Park, and Ali Hakim in Oklahoma. Heaven Can Wait is his first Red Mask show. Jack is a guidance counselor at Fountain Central High School in Indiana.

KERRY SIMPSON (Bette Logan): Kerry's last appearance on the Red Mask stage was in 1974 when she appeared as Gloria in Wait Until Dark. Anyone who remembers that production and the bratty little Gloria will note that Kerry has grown up! She was active in Red Mask Children's Theatre, is a graduate of Danville High School, and attended Ball State University on a tennis scholarship. She is currently employed at Fidelity Savings and Loan, and her hobbies are photography, writing, and tennis.

HARRY FERGUSON (Max Levene): Harry is a veteran Red Masker, having appeared in seven productions in nearly that many years. His credits include Ten Little Indians, Don't Drink the Water, Under Papa's Picture (for which he won a Katy), and last season's Bell, Book and Candle and Born Yesterday. Harry has also been in one DLO show and three Sunshine productions, the most recent being The Fantasticks. He is an Amalgamated Unicorn and played the Bear in Androcles and the Lion. His wife, Sandy, is a Red Mask supporter. Harry's days are "temporarily uncluttered" by anything but his involvement with Red Mask.

Congratulations and Thanks To . . .

. . . THE AMALGAMATED UNICORNS! If you're not familiar with the new continuing readers' group working under the auspices of Red Mask, you missed a delightful evening during Arts Week in Danville. Under the direction of Barbara Vinson, the group presented the Aesop's Fable Androcles and the Lion to a sizeable audience comprised of every age group. It was, indeed, a fun evening . . . and the actors seemed to be enjoying themselves as much as the audience!

If you missed Androcles, be sure to watch for future offerings from the group. And if you can't remember the name, just call them "A U"!
