

Let's talk about financial relationships

"A relationship is more than a history of doing business. It's a link based on mutual understanding and trust. It's fostered through tangible effort and attention. As a second generation investment broker, continuing a 28 year tradition – I understand relationships – long-term ones – allowing conservative investors of every size to thrive and grow with us. When you need to talk serious investments, talk to us."

From the President . . .

As hard as it is for me to believe, Red Mask's 54th season is drawing to a close. While serving as President this year, I have enjoyed the opportunity to speak with many newcomers to Danville as well as the 1990-1991 Leadership Danville class. I am extremely proud of what Red Mask has been able to offer this community for the past 54 years. Through dedication and hard work (not to mention excellent talent!), we have continued to provide high quality community theatre for Danville.

During the performance of Love, Sex and the IRS, the membership of Red Mask will be voting for four new board members. Please remember to mark your ballot and drop it in the ballot box at intermission. This is very important to your organization.

I want to thank the officers and Board of Directors for all their work and support during the past year. It had been an honor to work with these dedicated theatre lovers.

From the Director . . .

Welcome to the final show of the 1990-91 Season. The cast and crew have been very busy getting ready to present our audience with an evening of fun. This business of comedy is a very serious one. It's hard work that we enjoy a lot—as much as we hope you enjoy our play. This is a light-hearted look at what happens when we try to deceive the I.R.S. or our mates and the mess we create when the deceptions occur at the same time. For tonight, just forget your taxes and laugh at the I.R.S. with us.

Director . . .*Gaye Garner

Gaye is directing her second full length Red Mask show, in addition to a one act play she did several summers ago. She obviously enjoys working both on and behind stage as she has done a lot of both over the past eight + years. Her work as an Assistant Public Defender, accounting studies, and husband, David, keep her busy when she's not at the theatre. Her term as a board member is completed this year but her association with Red Mask is not.

Producers . . . Kerry Showers, Pat Simpson

This is first time backstage for both Kerry and Pat. Kerry began Red Mask as a child, acting in children's plays as well as an adult play. She had been performing on stage the past few years, the latest, playing Shelby in Steel Magnolias. Pat waited till seniorism (or senility) to begin performing, her latest: I Never Sang For My Father.

Kerry and husband Mike have four children under six. Pat has three children and nine grandchildren, therefore both qualifying as producers.

Stage Manager . . .*Donna Sant

This is Donna's first stint as back stage manager for quite a few seasons. She's worked backstage in other capacities, as well as having appeared in Odd Couple, The Importance of Being Ernest, Squabbles, and Bus Stop. "Stage managing is where I started. I just love bossing people around when the director's not looking." Outside of Red Mask, Donna is manager of Waldenbooks and of husband, Edward.

On Stage . . .

Susan Taylor (Kate): Love, Sex and the IRS marks the first performance for Susan with Red Mask. Other performances include The Skyway Man and The King and I both performed in her home state of Wyoming. Susan is employed as a social worker at the VA Hospital. She and her husband, Randy and son Nick have lived in Danville for eleven years.

William Satterfield (Leslie): William returns to Red Mask after a year's absence. Last year, he graced the stage in The Mousetrap and Noises Off, and stage managed Lou Ann Hampton Laverty Oberlander. He performed in Catch Me if You Can for Sunshine II and Music Man for D.L.O. Offstage, William works for Blue Cross-Blue Shield (he loves his job) and thanks his co-workers for all of their help during this show. He is planning a move to Indianapolis to finish his degree in English/Theatre.

Dave Downing (Mr. Jansen): Once again we have a real character playing a character role. After co-producing Steel Magnolias and stage managing Romantic Comedy, Dave finds himself onstage as the beer swill'n landlord, Mr. Jansen. "What a year this has been for a theatre junkie," Dave said. "But special thanks have to go to Larry and Warren, with a very special one to Marty. However, the ones I need to thank the most are my children and my lovely, understanding leading lady, I love you."

John Dowers (Jon): John is happy to once again be appearing on the Red Mask stage. You may remember him from last season as Christopher Wren in The Mousetrap or the indescribable Milo Crawford of LuAnn Hampton Laverty Oberlander. John has also worked with DLO and Sunshine II, and is serving on the Red Mask Board of Directors. John works as a Customer Service Rep. for the Commercial News and would like to thank the circulation dept. for all of their applause.

Bill Schatz (Mr. Spinner): This is Bill's 18th appearance on the Red Mask stage over a period of 35 years. He also has appeared with Sunshine II. He has served in all Red Mask offices and has served several terms on the Board of Directors. Having recently retired as Guidance Counselor from Danville High School, Bill is attempting to be a house-husband while wife, Maryilln continues working. They have two children, Bill and Susie and three grandchildren; Katie, Michael, and Laura.

Dorothea Perry (Vivian): Dorothea has been a member since 1947. This is her 15th play. After Last of the Red Hot Lovers, business interfered, causing a long hiatus until 50th anniversary for Red Mask, taking part in Night of January 16th. Dorothea's favorite dramatic role; Blanche in Streetcar Named Desire (received Katy) -- favorite comedy role, Opal in Everybody Loves Opal. She holds both IL and IN Real Estate Broker licenses. Dorothea is the proud grandmother of Daniel and Melissa, children of daughter Diane. She and her husband, Loyd, do tutoring at DACC with Literacy Volunteers of America. She is also a member of two Toastmasters Clubs, holding "Distinguished Toastmaster" designation.

Nancy Koniwski (Connie): This is Nancy's first time on stage since high school. Nancy has a very supportive family, husband Tony and two children, Katie, 5, and Nathan, 3. She works for her family at Hahne & Co. here in Danville.

Warren Frank (Mr. Grunion): It's taken a number of years for Warren's slowly advancing age to catch up with his quickly receding hairline but now he's able to play those character parts that eluded him for so many years. This is his first time on Red Mask's stage after working in other non acting areas for the past couple of years. Warren and Ann are most often found at Danville Lutheran School where Warren is principal and Ann teaches kindergarten.
