The Marriage-Go-Round

One year ago our organization completed the first step of a twenty-six year dream, a permanent home for Red Mask Players was purchased (with a mortgage).

Tonight, as you await the opening of another season, you have merely to look around you to see the second step results. A newly painted ceiling, a new light bridge, new light control board, refinished floors, rebuilt stage, refurbished heating system and installed theater seats.

Renovation and improvement will continue to be made in future years. However, let us pause for a moment and recognize the many individuals and firms who have made this possible to date: Dave Reno, Jim Williams, Ron Whisler, Ted Drews, Lou Rony, Danny Smith, Donna Prather, Joyce Turner, Sue Whisler, Judy Reno, Rod Prather, Max Turner, Lou Satterlee, Liz Satterlee, Carol Strader, Jean Moore, Ella Jane Leasure, Ted Harpley, Lou Lowenstein, Dick French, Jim Rominger, Joanne Lewis, Marget Wevang, Ron Bencke, Gadine Haxton, Jim McDowell, Gloria Prentice, Bob Cooper, Don Marler, Hurlatron Corp., Elliot Lumber Co., Danville Sportswear, General Electric Co. and Pepsi Cola Bottling Co.

Thanks also to those people whose names were inadvertently omitted from this program.

Our organization is truly ON THE MOVE!!

Beneath the Grease Paint . . .

DR. KENNETH L. TOY (Paul Delville) Ken is an old veteran of the Red Mask stage. He has been active since 1945 and some of the plays which he has been seen in are "My Sister Eileen", "John Loves Mary", "Stalag 17", "See How They Run", "Lilly, the Felon's Daughter" and "The Moon is Blue". He was awarded the Kathryn Randolph Award for the best performance by an actor in 1962. Besides trodding the boards, he has done some of the more unglamorous work on many backstage committees. Ken took the role of Paul after rehearsals were well underway and learned the part in record speed. He and his wife, Carol, have a daughter, Kristin, and a son Martin. He is a dentist here in Danville. He is a past president and board member of Red Mask.

NANCY LOWENSTEIN (Content Delville) Nancy is another Red Mask veteran. Some of her performances were in "The Happiest Millionaire", "The Solid Gold Cadillac", "Lilly, the Felon's Daughter", "Pure as the Driven Snow" and "Bus Stop". She has been active in Red Mask for the past ten years and has served on several backstage committees. Besides giving her time and talent for us, she is the mother of a one-year-old son, Michael. She majored in speech and drama at Illinois Wesleyan University and is presently teaching at East Park Junior High School. Nancy is a current member of the Board of Directors.

JEANNE EISENHAUER (Katrin Sveg) Jeanne has appeared in two previous Red Mask productions, "John Loves Mary" and "Man in a Dog Suit". She has been a member since 1949 and has put in several backstage hours. We are most happy to have her back on our stage. She is married and is also employed as a copywriter at WDAN Radio Station.

HAROLD LEISCH (Ross Barnett) Harold is no newcomer to Red Mask. He has been seen in "My Sister Eileen" and "Man in a Dog Suit" and has been active for the past twelve years in the organization. He comes from a good Red Mask family. Both his son, Bill and his daughter, Sharon, have appeared on our stage. He is employed by the Leath Furniture Company.
