Notes from the Director

Twenty years and 50 pounds ago I had one of my first Red Mask work experiences. It was limited to helping gather some props and move some furniture onto the Palace Theater stage for "Arsenic and Old Lace." It began my heart-warming association with Kathryn Randolph--my most "unforgettable character."

Now I've had the pleasure of laughing with 14 cast members who share some of the nostalgia of recreating the roles of this comedy. The low temperatures of January couldn't chill the warmth generated by the cast and crew as they developed the author's words into a charming presentation. We hope you enjoy the performance as much as we have enjoyed being a part of developing it for you.
