A Word From The President...

One of the real pleasures of this office is being able to welcome you to our theatre. So . . . welcome!

Your wonderful response to our players' efforts is so encouraging. Nothing is more electric in community theatre than a responsive audience. You will be pleased that you reserved seats for this show, Bell, Book and Candle. It is a truly delightful story — a love story with a different twist to it. Beautifully directed by Barbara Vinson and superbly performed by a stunning cast, it is Red Mask at its very best.

Thank you for being with us.

Sincerely,
Max Sperling

From The Director . . .

There are few situations feared more by the human race than being isolated from our fellows.

In Act III Gillian speaks of using her powers to "get something for nothing and ending up in a little world of separateness from everyone."

By learning to give love Gillian happily joins our world of ordinary people.

Barbara Vinson

Stage Manager/Producer . . .

BARB SNEYD

Barb has worked in many capacities at Red Mask both on stage and off. Backstage she has done props and has accumulated many hours as Stage Manager and Producer. On stage she has appeared in The Secret Affairs of Mildred Wild and The Very Great Grandson of Sherlock Holmes. Barb teaches 6th grade in Westville, is an active member of the Westville Education Association, and has been busy teaching an evening class at DACC as well as taking classes toward an MBA degree. Barb says she "began to show signs of withdrawal from not being 'really involved' in a production for awhile, so took the time to work on this one (with the support of an extremely understanding husband, Tom, who has partaken of very few home-cooked meals during the last two months!)"

On Stage . . .

CAROL JEANNETTE JACKSON (Gillian) hasn't been a witch on the Red Mask stage since her Children's Theatre performance in The Wizard of Oz. Having graduated from the University of Illinois as an English Education major, she returned to Danville this fall from a summer with the professional acting company of John Ahart whose Young American People Show was a winner of this year's Governor's Awards for the Arts. Ms. Jackson is headed for Minneapolis where she plans to pursue . . . life!

DUSTER (Pyewacket) is making his theatrical debut in this production of Bell, Book and Candle. He is a Himalayan and is a member of the Jim Tucker family. The Tuckers characterize Duster's temperament as something akin to a feather pillow. We hope this experience hasn't ruffled his feathers!
