

1985-86 Season . . .

Once again Red Mask Players has an exciting line-up of shows planned for the coming season. And once again, the prices will remain the same! You'll receive our brochure with complete details, but in the meantime here's a brief overview:

FALL CHILDREN'S PLAY To Be Announced
September 27 & 28, 1985

BUS STOP comedy by William Inge
November 1, 2, 3, 8, 9, 14, 15 & 16, 1985

A bus out of Kansas City is stranded at a cheerful roadside diner during a snow storm. The passengers and proprietors have to spend the night. What they learn about themselves and each other provides a warm and touching comedy.

THE GINGERBREAD LADY comedy-drama by Neil Simon
January 17, 18, 19, 24, 25, 30, 31, & Feb. 1, 1986

This show, about a popular singer whose friends and daughter are trying to help her adjust to sobriety, combines Simon's special brand of comedy with a serious story about a group of lost misfits.

A BAD YEAR FOR TOMATOES comedy by John Patrick
March 21, 22, 23, 28, 29, April 3, 4, & 5, 1986

A famous television actress seeks to "get away from it all" in a small New England town. Her very funny misfortunes make it nearly impossible for her to do what she came to do . . . grow tomatoes!

SPRING CHILDREN'S PLAY To Be Announced
May 5, 6, 7, 8, & 9, 1986

From The President . . .

At the end of my "second time around" as President, I'd like to thank all active Red Maskers and our wonderful audiences for a very enjoyable and challenging year. Having just come back from a weekend in Springfield with the cast and crew of our Illinois Community Theatre Festival cutting of Same Time, Next Year, I am especially aware of how fortunate we are to have such an active and enthusiastic group. Although we did not win at the Festival (Monaco will have to wait!), the critique we received from the judges was quite positive, and we plan to do it again.

Please remember to vote for your choices for new members of our Board of Directors. You can't make a mistake, because those running for the vacant spots would all be excellent members of our Board. All adult members (season ticket holders) of Red Mask are eligible to vote. And don't forget to join us when the Amalgamated Unicorn meets every 2nd and 4th Monday evening of the month from 7 to 9 p.m. at the theatre.

We'd also like to say a special word of welcome to First Midwest Bank's Super Sixty group for whom we are delighted to be doing a special matinee performance of this production.

From the rehearsals I have watched, I know you are going to be thoroughly entertained by the performance of Second Time Around you are about to watch. Sit back and enjoy!

From The Director . . .

i am going to make a departure from the usual musing in this space and use it for a very personal purpose. from august of '82 through august of '84, this ol' fat man had a real raggedy-_____ time. in layman's terms, i was busy having a nervous breakdown. however, my friends . . . most of whom come from red mask . . . had no intention of letting me flounder around by myself. their concern and love kept me going, and to them i will be eternally grateful. and so, to all the incredibly kind and caring red maskers (you know who you are), i say thanks and i love you!

always,

john

Director . . .

J. EDWARD HANCOCK

Since becoming active with Red Mask in 1978, John has been Sidney in God's Favorite, the Taxi Driver in Harvey, Abner Truckle in Sly Fox, and almost-Hoke in Night Watch! He has also directed 6 Rms Riv Vu and Chapter Two for Red Mask, Sound of Music and Hans Christian Andersen for DLO, and L'il Abner at Schlarman High School. Before coming to Danville, John was active with community theatre groups in the East and the South. He majored in theatre at Carnegie Tech in Pittsburgh and says his infatuation with the theatre began at the ripe old age of seven! Besides Red Mask shows, John has also appeared as Pellinore in Camelot with DLO and as Mr. Velasco in Barefoot in the Park with Sunshine II.

Stage Manager . . .

GAYE BERGSCHNEIDER

Although she is fairly new to Danville, Gaye feels very much at home here, both at work as an assistant public defender and at Red Mask. She has done roles large and small for Red Mask, directed and now stage managed. All of these functions have two common denominators . . . friendship and fun . . . which is what Gaye enjoys about community theatre. Her favorite roles include Mammy Yokum in L'il Abner, Nurse Ratched in Cuckoo's Nest, and Katy in Finishing Touches. She most recently appeared as Helga in Night Watch.

On Stage . . .

PATTY FERRIS (Cynthia): Patty has played a variety of rather wacky ladies in shows like Everybody Loves Opal, Chapter Two, and No Sex Please, We're British. She is an Investigator for the Department of Children and Family Services. Her children, Josh and Carrie, have been in Red Mask Children's shows, and Brett (age 19 months) is already learning about the lure of the theatre!

TERRY WALTERS (Michael): This is indeed "the second time around" for Terry this season. He appeared as the bare-bellied sheriff in Sly Fox. Terry also worked in One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest and has been in numerous DLO shows. By day he is the Principal at Douglas School and lives in Danville with his wife, Jacqui.

MARY BRANDT (Laura): After an absence of several years, Mary is returning to Red Mask. Her first appearance was in Blythe Spirit in 1945. In 1965 she won a Katy Award for her portrayal of the Empress in Anastasia. Mary has three children and six grandchildren and is a Registered Nurse employed as Supervisor at Vermilion Manor Nursing Home.

FRED LEGG (Samuel): In addition to his Red Mask roles (On Golden Pond, Heaven Can Wait, Cuckoo's Nest, and Night Watch) and appearances with Sunshine II and DLO, Fred recently did a guest shot with the Basics on their video which just appeared on MTV. He is currently serving on the Red Mask Board and works as "house husband" for his wife, Carol. Fred also doubled as Producer for this show.

On Stage . . .

MARTY HOWREY (Eleanor): Marty's most recent Red Mask role was as Claire Harrison in Whose Life Is It Anyway? At home both on stage and behind the scenes, she was Producer/Stage Manager for Sly Fox. Currently a Red Mask Board Member, Marty works as a volunteer in the Lakeview Hospice program. She and husband, Dave, have two children . . . John and Meg.

ANTHONY FIASCHETTI (Arthur): Tony's work in the Psychology Department at the V.A. has surely helped him create some great characters in Dracula, No Sex Please, and Whose Life Is It Anyway?. He has also performed with Sunshine II in Actor's Nightmare and Prisoner of Second Avenue. Tony and wife, Barbara, have two daughters . . . Laura and Martha.

SCOTT WELLS (Bruce): Currently an English student at DACC, Scott hopes to continue his studies next year at the University of Illinois. At Catlin High School he played the lead in Sweeney Todd, and recently portrayed Officer Vanelli in Night Watch. Scott loves acting and hopes to be involved in many more productions.

KERRY SHOWERS (Angela): Kerry's Red Mask history includes several children's shows and roles in Wait Until Dark and Heaven Can Wait. She works at WDNL and enjoys tennis and water skiing. Kerry and her husband, Mike, have a five-month-old son, Douglas.
