The Secret Affairs of Mildred Wild

by Paul Zindel

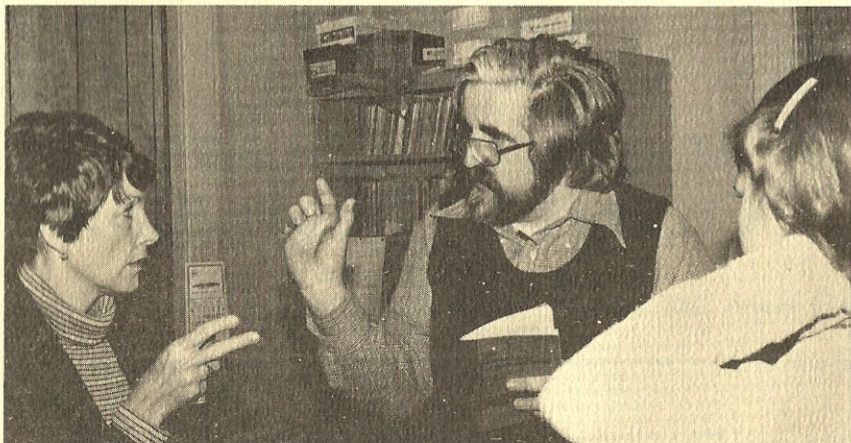

directed by Barbara Vinson

A very funny play with a lot of substance—that's Mildred Wild. Mildred lives in a fantasy world drawn from 3,000 movies and a 40-year collection of show business magazines. Her fantasies are comprised of the person she is and the person she'd like to be all rolled together with the people she knows and the life she thinks she'd like to lead. Perhaps Mildred's fantasies give us a look at our own?

From The Director . . .

“Mildred Wild” is a guide for a successfully executed fantasy. Why tolerate the mundane — fly with us in a never-never land of glamour, fun, and beauty. Mildred Wild will show you how.

It has been my pleasure to coax a spirited, intelligent cast into a working unit. So, with the hard-working backstage crew, I’m proud to present THE SECRET AFFAIRS OF MILDRED WILD.

Director . . .

BARBARA VINSON

Directing for Red Mask is not a new venture for Barbara. In recent years she has directed a wide variety of Red Mask offerings including The Effect Of Gamma Rays On Man-In-The-Moon Marigolds, several drama and Theatre 601 Workshops, and workshop performances of a melodrama and Feiffer's People.

She is also a singer and actress and has appeared in numerous Danville Light Opera productions. For her performance in Red Mask's Any Wednesday she won a Katy Award, and she has participated in several workshop and Theatre 601 activities.

Barbara attended Eastern Illinois University and is currently serving as Red Mask's Second Vice President.

Stage Manager/Producer . . .

J. EDWARD HANCOCK

John is most recently familiar for his role as Sidney Lipton in God's Favorite. Prior to that he has acted and directed “all over the place” including Virginia, Pennsylvania, and Ohio. A five-year resident of Danville, John is on the staff of the Vermilion County PSEP and is a Fine Arts Appraiser. He and his wife, Muriel, have two children: Glen, 8, and Jaime, 3.

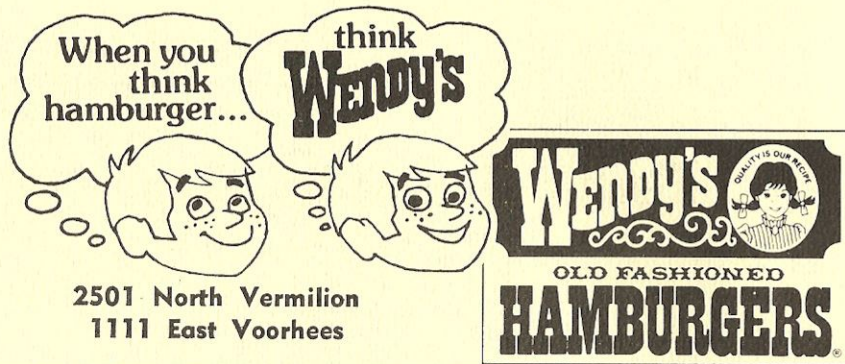

Of his recent experience John states, “After a 7-year wait to get re-involved in theatre, Red Mask has been fantastic. From the delight of God's Favorite to the present show, especially the opportunity to work with Barbara Vinson, TaDa! — and the greatest crew I’ve ever had — special thanks to May, Jenni, and Jeannette.”

DOROTHY (Debbie) TOLLIVER (Mildred) — The name Tolliver is certainly familiar to Red Mask audiences in nearly every direction. Debbie has participated in a number of areas in recent years. Her last Red Mask role was Mrs. Savage in The Curious Savage. She also appeared in DLO's production of Oliver. Debbie's husband, Bob, is currently Red Mask President and they have two sons — Craig, a theatre major at U of I, and Marc, a ninth grader at Northridge Junior High. The whole family has been active with Red Mask. She has a B.A. from Indiana University, an M.S.L.S. from the University of Illinois, and is the Reference/Periodical/Microfilm Librarian at Danville Junior College. Born in Manhattan, Debbie used to ride the Staten Island Ferry to visit her aunt and uncle. And she confesses to loving Charlotte Russes!

VICKI CLARK (Fantasy Mildred) — Vicki is making her first Red Mask appearance in Mildred Wild but has appeared on stage before in productions such as The Miracle Worker and The Night Of January 16th. She received the 1974 Thespian Mask Award at Seeger High School and attended Purdue University. She is employed at Tru-Flex Metal Hose Corp. in West Lebanon and lives near Tab, Indiana, with her husband Stan.

BILL SCHATZ (Roy) — Bill appeared in his first Red Mask play, Stalag 17, in 1957. Since that time he has been in many shows including Pure As The Driven Snow, Barefoot In The Park, Ten Little Indians, Don't Drink The Water, Mary, Mary, and Calculated Risk (for which he received a Katy). He is a past Secretary, Treasurer, and President of Red Mask, has served several terms on the Red Mask Board of Directors, and has served on most all committees at some time. A prevocational coordinator for the Special Education Department at Danville High School, Bill's wife, Maryilln, has often helped behind-the-scenes at Red Mask. They have a son, Bill, and a daughter, Susan.

JOYCE HOFMAN (Bertha) — Although she has had private drama lessons, Mildred Wild is Joyce's first actual stage appearance. She is the mother of three teen-aged daughters and brought one of them (May) to Red Mask with her to help behind the scenes as Bookholder. Joyce lives in Georgetown, does the office work for her husband's construction company, and enjoys spending time exercising and playing her favorite sport — racquet ball.

On Stage Tonight . . .

LIZ MILLER (Helen) — A true Red Mask veteran, Liz has served in virtually every capacity. She is a past President and Board Member and has directed Monique, Curious Savage, Ten Little Indians, and Don't Drink The Water. Her onstage experience includes roles in The Happiest Millionaire, Black Chiffon, Mousetrap, Send Me No Flowers, Delicate Balance, Cactus Flower, Blithe Spirit, and Last Of The Red Hot Lovers. Liz is a Speech Clinician at Douglas and Fairchild Schools. Her son Matt is employed in Urbana, and her daughter Marti is a senior at Danville High School.

GEORGE MAHAN (Carroll) — George's roles in Mildred Wild broaden even further the variety of Red Mask parts he has played — a presidential candidate in The Best Man, a butler in Ten Little Indians, and the machine-gun-toting guard in Don't Drink The Water. Currently a member of the Board, George has served in many backstage roles including Producer of God's Favorite. He is a Project Analyst at Bohn Aluminum and lives in Danville with his wife, Lori, and their daughter, Cindi.

NANCY NICHOLS (Sister Cecilia) — Nancy came to Red Mask as Rose Benjamin in the fall production of God's Favorite. Prior to that she appeared with the Kankakee Valley Theatre in productions such as The Odd Couple, My Fair Lady, and Jesus Christ Superstar. In Kankakee she also served as Assistant Director for Never Too Late. Only in Danville since June, Nancy already lists Max Sperling as her favorite leading man!

BARB SNEYD (Miss Manley) — Barb began her Red Mask experience last season doing props for The Best Man and Don't Drink The Water. This season she served as Stage Manager for God's Favorite, and with Mildred Wild she has moved onstage for her first acting experience. A native Westvillian, Barb lives there with her husband Tom and teaches 6th grade at McMillan School.

On Stage Tonight . . .

HARRY FERGUSON (Rex Bulby) — Harry is familiar to Red Mask audiences for several roles he has played in recent seasons — Mr. Harper in Janus, Phillip Lombard in Ten Little Indians, and Axel Magee in Don't Drink The Water. He has also appeared in Oklahoma and My Fair Lady with Danville Light Opera. He spends his days selling automobiles at Carmack, lives in Danville with his wife, Sandy, and has two sons, Jonathon and Sean.

DAVID JOUVENAT (Warren) — Another newcomer to Red Mask, David, his wife Kathi, and their two children came to Danville last June. He attended Columbus High School in Nebraska and the University of Nebraska — at both of which he played the title role in Bye Bye Birdie. A speech major, he was active in University Theatre and in 1967 was Stage Manager for the "Nebraska Centennial Show" with Johnny Carson. He is employed at Santec Mfg., enjoys singing, and is a member of the St. James Church Choir.

JENNI TYLER (Evelyn) — Besides her role as Evelyn, Jenni has also served as Assistant Stage Manager for this production. Her previous experience includes plays at Chrisman High School and DJC Kollege Kapers. Jenni is a Registered Professional Nurse and works part-time as the relief Occupational Health Nurse at G.M. She enjoys writing, singing, and sports and resides in Catlin with her husband Larry and 3-year-old son, B.J.

From The President . . .

Welcome! We're glad you're here, and we hope you were not inconvenienced in making your seating requests for this evening. Your membership entitles you to a seat, and we try to accommodate our members before we open the box office to the general public. A rather persistent myth has it that the best performances are during the last week. This just isn't so. Very often opening night is as good as, or superior to, the closing performance. Please remember that the earlier you make your plans to see a Red Mask production, the better we can serve you. We sincerely regret having to turn members away during last-week performances. You can help eliminate this problem by carefully following the instructions on the ticket flyer. Many thanks for your cooperation.

Opposite this page you will find a list of plays being considered for the 1979-80 season. Our Play Selection Committee works very hard to choose the kind of shows we hope you'll enjoy. You can help us by letting us know your preferences. Please check those titles of particular interest to you or suggest others and drop them at the box office as you leave this evening.

Barbara Vinson and company have promised me that you're going to have a good time tonight. So relax and enjoy yourselves.

Tryouts Set . . . Under Papa's Picture

Director Ron McDaniel has announced that tryouts for Red Mask's Spring play, Under Papa's Picture, will be held on Sunday and Monday, February 11 and 12, at 7:30 p.m. There are roles for 3 men and 3 women and a boy of about 6 or 7.

John, a stuffy young executive, is on the verge of a big promotion when his widowed mother knocks at the door, suitcase in hand and seven months pregnant by an itinerant artist . . . and just in time for an important dinner party for John's corporate superiors. Murphy's Law works to make this an outrageous comedy.
