HABITS OF THE HOUSE

Gentlemen are respectfully requested to kindly remove their hats upon entering the theatre and to extinguish cigars. Please refrain from smoking during the performance, due to the possible harmful effect on our actor's vocal cords. Ladies are also respectfully requested to observe these regulations.

Be kind to the matronly madam beside you. She may be somebody's mother.

Hissing the villain and cheering the hero will be permitted. Anyone casting debris at the players will be forcibly ejected from the hall.

Soft drinks will be provided for refreshment. Please pour it into your mugs instead of shedding tears in the jugs. Don't bend the elbow too much — share it with your neighbor.

Men and Women in the Audience will "Kindly Refrain" from throwing Peanuts. Gentlemen and Ladies do not need to be Thus Cautioned!

Please do not ask for telephone numbers of the Players. There's a 50-50 chance you'll get them.

Red Mask Players has been fortunate in securing the services of Mrs. Jane Rose Acton as accompanist.

Artfully contrived backgrounds, elaborate make-up, handsome furnishings, personal properties, and dynamic advertising all have been taken care of by members of the company.

The Emoluments arising from the Exertions of this Society will be Dedicated to

WORTHY PURPOSES!

LONG LIVE RED MASK PLAYERS!!
