A Word From The President...

Welcome to Red Mask's 1981 staging of Born Yesterday!

First presented in Danville at the Palace Theatre in 1954, this stage giant is as topical, absorbing and entertaining today as it was opening night on Broadway in 1946. We are proud to offer this show to you as the closing presentation of the season.

Director Liz Miller, her cast and staff, are pleased with this opportunity for theatrical expression. It is our hope that you will find the company's efforts to your liking.

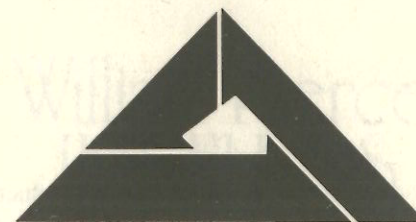

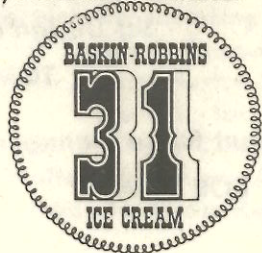

We would like to call your attention to the Red Mask Players sign just installed at the Vermilion Street entrance. For this addition to our theatre we extend appreciation to artist Gary Resh, to Building Chairman Leon Ewbank, and to Bob Tolliver, Tom Shafer, and Nat Horton. Well done!

Once again — welcome — and enjoy the show!

Sincerely,
Max Sperling

From The Director...

Directing a play is like working a jigsaw puzzle. You hope from the beginning that all the pieces will fall into place to create a complete and pleasing picture on opening night.

The production of Born Yesterday has been a thoroughly delightful experience, due to the talent and imagination of a very competent cast and the dedication and efficiency of the backstage staff and crews, whose work began even before the first rehearsal. All who were involved in "getting the show on the road" tackled their responsibilities with a great amount of enthusiasm, and it was a pleasure to see the puzzle taking form.

The great excitement of a play is that the last piece of the puzzle cannot be placed until the most important element is present — you, the audience. So it is that tonight Harry Brock, the scheming junk dealer, and Billie Dawn, his ex-chorus girl mistress, and all the other characters involved in this comedy with a touch of pathos become REAL because YOU chose to join us in creating a play.

LIZ MILLER

Director . . .

LIZ MILLER

Born Yesterday marks the fifth Red Mask production for which Liz has served as Director. Her others include Monique, Curious Savage, Ten Little Indians, and Don't Drink the Water. A past President and currently a member of the Board of Directors, Liz has served as Membership Chairman, Children's Play Chairman, and in almost every backstage capacity. In addition to her directing capabilities, she has also exhibited her talents on stage in numerous productions including The Happiest Millionaire, The Mousetrap, Send Me No Flowers, Delicate Balance, Cactus Flower, Blithe Spirit, Last of the Red Hot Lovers, The Secret Affairs of Mildred Wild, and this season's One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest. Liz is a Speech Clinician at Douglas and Fairchild Schools and has a son, Matt, and daughter, Marti.

Stage Manager . . .

DONNA JUDD

Although Born Yesterday is Donna's first active experience behind the scenes at Red Mask, she has been an enthusiastic supporter of the organization for many years. She works as a Librarian at Lakeview Medical Center. She and her husband, Gene, have one son and one daughter.

Producer . . .

HARRIET MILLER

Since becoming involved at Red Mask only last season, Harriet has kept busy doing properties for A Majority of One, 6 Rms Riv Vu, and One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest. She is a native of Pine River, Minnesota, and has lived in Danville for the past 10 years. Harriet is a Certified Dental Assistant and Office Coordinator for Dr. Philip Laurence. An avid seamstress and reader, she is currently working toward her Bachelor's degree at Eastern Illinois University.

DON MEEKER

On Stage . . .

TOBI L. BAER (Billie Dawn) is primarily a singer-dancer, but is back on the Red Mask stage after a four year absence. She last portrayed Emily Brent in Ten Little Indians for which she won a Katy Award. Active in Danville Light Opera, Tobi has been seen in such roles as Annie Oakley in Annie Get Your Gun, Anita in West Side Story, and in the choruses of The Sound of Music, Carousel, and Music Man. She has also appeared in Sunshine productions of Oklahoma and Fiddler on the Roof and performed the role of Gretel in the 1978 Danville Symphony production of Hansel and Gretel. Tobi is a graduate of Illinois State University's Theatre Department, is a member of Vermilion Festival Singers, and is employed by Hillman Jewelers. At the close of this production she plans to move to New Orleans and pursue her theatrical career.

MAX SPERLING (Harry Brock) is creating his seventh role on the Red Mask stage in Born Yesterday. His impressive list of credits (for which he has numerous Katy Awards) include: Last of the Red Hot Lovers, The Sunshine Boys, The Best Man, God's Favorite, and A Majority of One. Max claims that Harry Brock may very well be his most volatile "character". Employed with Mervis Industries, Max has two sons who "support my Red Mask madness with vigor." He is currently winding down his two-year term as Red Mask President; and, although he enjoys on-stage work to the fullest, his principal interest "remains in the continued growth of Red Mask in our community!" And the vast numbers of you in our audience to whom Max sells memberships each season are testimony to his invaluable role in Red Mask's growth.

HARRY FERGUSON (Paul Verrall) is a Red Mask Katy Award winner for his role as Fabrizio in Under Papa's Picture, and most recently appeared as the less-than-sober Sidney Redlitch in Bell, Book and Candle. His other Red Mask productions include Ten Little Indians, Janus, Don't Drink the Water, The Secret Affairs of Mildred Wild, and Harvey. Harry has also performed with Danville Light Opera in My Fair Lady and in the Sunshine Productions of Oklahoma and Man of LaMancha. He is employed at Carmack Car Capitol and lives in Danville with his wife, Sandy.

On Stage . . .

BOB TOLLIVER (Ed Devery) is a past President and Board Member at Red Mask and served for many seasons as "publicist extraordinaire". He is a Katy Award winner for his role in The Impossible Years, played the lead in Don't Drink the Water, and portrayed the incomparable Elwood P. Dowd in last season's Harvey. Bob and his wife, Debbie, and their sons Marc and Craig have all been active at Red Mask, Danville Light Opera, and Sunshine II. Craig, a Jean Lewis Scholarship Award winner, is currently finishing his second year at the American Academy of Dramatic Arts in Pasadena.

GEORGE MAHAN (Senator Hedges) has probably portrayed the most varied types of characters in recent Red Mask history — from the butler in Ten Little Indians to a Presidential candidate in The Best Man to a guard in Don't Drink the Water to a chorus girl in The Secret Affairs of Mildred Wild (for which he won a Katy) to a psychiatrist in Harvey. In his capacity as this year's First Vice President, George headed the committee responsible for the fine line-up of plays you'll see at Red Mask next season. He has also appeared in a number of Danville Light Opera productions. George and his wife Lori have one daughter, Cindi.

BARBARA MCKINZIE (Mrs. Hedges) is glad to be back on stage after several seasons away. Her last Red Mask role was as Ann Stanley in Forty Carats. A music major at Illinois State University, Barb is a charter member of Danville Light Opera where she played leads in Show Boat, Oklahoma, and Carousel. She currently sings in the choir at St. James United Methodist Church. Barbara is an Interior Designer and has three children: Kirk, a student at Western Illinois University; Mark, age 12; and Molly, age 11.

On Stage . . .

LEON EW BANK (Eddie Brock) is making his third Red Mask appearance in Born Yesterday. He previously had roles in Ten Little Indians and Reserve Two For Murder. Before coming to Danville Leon worked with the Hayswood Theatre in Corydon, Indiana, where he had roles in Ten Little Indians, The Mouse Trap, Never Too Late, and The Night of January Sixteenth. A retired U.S. Meat Inspector whose hobbies are art, music, reading, and sports, Leon works part-time at the YMCA and more than part-time as a 'jack-of-all-trades' at Red Mask. Leon and his wife Mary Evelyn have two children, Dr. Robert L. Ewbank of Danville, and Nancy Jane Bales of Hartford City, Indiana.

GARY RESH (Assistant Manager) so enjoyed his role as Chairman and Master of Ceremonies of the Katy Awards program for the past two years that he decided to try his hand in a production. Currently Red Mask Treasurer, Gary is Data Processing Manager at HurletronAltair, Inc. He has worked backstage in many capacities for such productions as Ten Little Indians, The Secret Affairs of Mildred Wild, Under Papa's Picture, God's Favorite, and 6 Rms Riv Vu. As Set Designer for A Majority of One and Bell, Book and Candle his many artistic talents have been apparent.

JOHN COCKRELL (Bellhop) is a 1980 graduate of Schlarman High School where he appeared in Li'l Abner and worked backstage in No, No, Nanette. At Danville Light Opera he worked behind the scenes on West Side Story and The Sound of Music. He helped with props for Bell, Book and Candle and designed the program cover for both that production and this one. John is employed at Vermilion IGA and aspires to "be active in Danville community theatre for a long, long time!"

CHARLIE HORTON (Bellhop) is a native of Greenville, South Carolina. He worked in several plays in high school, but Born Yesterday is his first Red Mask association. He earned his Master of Health Administration from Duke University and came to Danville last May to begin his job at Lakeview Medical Center. Charlie sings in the choir at St. James United Methodist Church. He and his wife, Susan, enjoy hiking, sailing, and playing tennis.

ALFREDA KLINGENSMITH (Helen) is in her sixth season with Red Mask and has performed a number of roles both on stage and off. She served as Producer for 6 Rms Riv Vu and as Stage Manager for Janus, The Best Man, and Harvey. She has appeared on stage in The Sunshine Boys, Play It Again, Sam, The Effect of Gamma Rays on Man-In-The-Moon Marigolds, and The Very Great Grandson of Sherlock Holmes. She also performed in the chorus of the DLO production of Sugar. At present, Alfreda is self-employed as a piano teacher.

BILL BRANDY (Barber) was active in high school and college dramatics but Born Yesterday is his first play in 22 years. Born in Ohio and raised in Rhode Island, Bill attended college in Ohio and did graduate studies at the University of Pittsburgh and Oklahoma University. He is Chief of Audiology and Speech Pathology at the VA Medical Center. His wife Maryann is a journalism student at the University of Illinois, and they have two sons — Steve and Matt.

LINDA NELSON (Manicurist) is a “beginner” on the Red Mask stage but was active in drama at both Danville High School and Illinois Wesleyan University. She is a School Psychologist with the Vermilion Association of Special Education (VASE). She and her husband Rick, a math teacher at Danville High School, have three sons — Jeff, Jason, and Shawn.

BOB KNAPP (Bootblack and Waiter) has previously appeared at Red Mask in Ten Little Indians, The Best Man, Under Papa's Picture, and Harvey. He has been the head of the Pharmacy Service at the VA Medical Center for the past four years. This is his first appearance in “dual” roles. And, besides playing two characters on stage, he has also acted as Assistant Stage Manager for this production.

1981-1982 Season Announced

FALL CHILDREN'S PLAY To Be Announced
October 2 & 3, 1981

HEAVEN CAN WAIT Comedy/Fantasy by Harry Segall
November 6, 7, 13, 14, 15, 20 & 21, 1981

First presented by Red Mask in 1954, this delightful play concerns the untimely—indeed premature—demise of prize fighter Joe Pendleton. When the error is discovered as Joe is about to depart for the Hereafter, circumstances prevent his being returned to earth as himself. The ensuing chain of events makes this a charming tale which has delighted audiences for years both in play form and as two movies—one by the same name and one familiar to many as Here Comes Mr. Jordan.

CHAPTER TWO Comedy by Neil Simon
January 29, 30, February 5, 6, 7, 12 & 13, 1982

Based on part of Neil Simon's own life, Chapter Two mixes laughter with heartache. George Schneider's wife has recently died and his brother, Leo, tries to snap him out of his emotional tailspin by supplying him with unwanted — and unsuccessful — dates. Until Jenny Malone — newly divorced and in an emotional tailspin of her own — comes along with her dizzy friend, Faye. The results create a "lovely, whimsical and touching and always funny" play.

TRIBUTE Comedy/Drama by Bernard Slade
April 16, 17, 23, 24, 25, 30 & May 1, 1982

Scottie Templeton is a charming, irresponsible fellow. He's everyone's friend, nobody's hero, and a great womanizer who's managed to live over 50 years without taking anything seriously including love, marriage, and fatherhood. When Scottie learns he's fatally ill, his one concern is to make friends with his son — no easy task in light of their past relationship. The course of the play's resolution is a marvelous blend of humor, pathos, and insight into the truth.

KATY AWARDS . . .

The 1980-81 KATY AWARDS Party will be held on Saturday, May 30, at the Kathryn Randolph Theatre. A Social Hour will begin at 7:00 p.m. and the Awards Program will begin at 8:15 — Curtain Time! Mark your calendar and plan now to be with us when Red Mask honors all those who have worked so hard to make this season a success.

As well as the coveted KATY AWARDS, named for Kathryn Randolph who organized and devoted so many years to Red Mask, this year's JEAN LEWIS SCHOLARSHIP AWARD will be presented. The entire Red Mask membership and the general public are cordially invited to attend as we recognize those who have made outstanding contributions to the 1980-81 Red Mask Season.

An Open Invitation

Dear Friends of Red Mask,

Red Mask Players of Danville extend to you a warm invitation to join us in our exciting activities during the coming season.

With open arms we welcome new talent on our stage. Experienced actors and actresses are always in demand, and we are thrilled to have newly discovered talent make a debut on the Red Mask stage. Won't you watch the newspapers and our marquee for announcements of try-out dates?

In addition, backstage production work always has need for your skills. Would you be interested in directing, set design or construction, make-up, properties, costuming, publicity, ushering, programs, play selection? If these or other areas such as lighting or sound effects appeal to you, then come join us just "for the fun of it".

Sincerely,
Red Mask Players
