

ADVERTECTURE is the art of building a client's sales with planned advertising. AN ADVERTECT'S services are available at the Wayne G. Williams Advertising Agency.

Officers of Red Mask Players

- President Guy Supple
- Vice-President Honore Ronan
- Secretary Charlotte Ellis
- Treasurer John Nichols
- Program Director Jane Rose Acton
- Membership Charles Henson
- Publicity Robert Wright
- Stage Manager William Almy
- Assistant Director Georgia Doney

FLOWERS AT THEIR BEST

SARA OSBORNE

PERSONAL ATTENTION

Harwal Hotel

Phone 571

The Philadelphia Story

is a three-act sophisticated comedy depicting the intrigue of socialite Philadelphia when confronted with the insidious operations of an unscrupulous New York publisher, wherein a family scandal threatens to develop. Considered one of Philip Barry's best productions, The Philadelphia Story has enjoyed continued popularity, ranking high in subtlety, clever manipulation and sustaining interest.

Direction by KATHRYN RANDOLPH

(Produced with Special Permission of Dramatists Play Service, Inc.)

THE RED MASK PLAYERS OF DANVILLE

TENTH SEASON

PALACE THEATRE

Danville, Illinois

8:15 P. M.

For Their Invaluable Assistance Our Sincere Thanks to . . .

Bob Wright—for ADVERTISING.

Honore Ronan—for ART WORK.

Helen Mauck, Margie Terrell, Irene Bookwalter and Elizabeth Fleming—for ASSISTANT DIRECTION.

Bob Duncan, Elma Theurer and Betty Ewers—for CASTING.

Mary Ann Graham—for COSTUMES.

Betty Ewers, Virginia Roy and Peg Adams—for MAKE-UP.

Charles Henson, Virginia Nichols, Sara Selby, Doris Lowenstein, Wini Halls,
Ruth Tuggle, Kathryn Kerr, Betty Ewers, Dorothy Stitt, Mildred Gainer,
Mary Lou Ackelmire, Eloise McNamee, Jo Mauck, Jane Mauck, Selma
Mervis, Helen Shaffer, Gladys Thomas, Magdalen Thomas, Elma Erickson, Jane Amment, James French, Frank South, Joe Ewers, Wayne
Williams, Frank Caughron, Jim Robinson, John Wilkerson, Red Mask
Board of Directors—for MEMBERSHIP.

Honore Ronan, Red Mask Board of Directors—for PLAY SELECTION.

Low Selby, Betty Joslin and Myra Sneyd—for PROGRAM PREPARATION and DISTRIBUTION.

Irene Bookwalter, Helen Mauck, Elizabeth Fleming—for PROPERTIES.

William Almy, Guy Supple, Clarence Gage, Edwin Depke—for SCENERY and EFFECTS.

Helen Mauck—for SOUND EFFECTS.

Nancy VanDervoort, Mary Mansinger and Elma Theurer—for STAGING.

Ray Foreman, Emily Dickerson, James French, Rachel Snider and Corrine
Tengen—for TICKETS.

AND TO THE FOLLOWING FIRMS

Van Dervoort's

Casner Piano Co.

The Commercial-News

Hotel Wolford

Perry Furniture Co.

Madelle Hegeler Studio

Sara Osborne

Meis Furniture Co.

Publix-Great States Theatres,

Inc., Personnel

Sudlow-McPeak

With especial thanks to Mr. A. J. Hoennicke, Manager of Hotel Wolford, for his many gracious courtesies.

WELCOME TO

Wire Drug Store

FINEST FOOD AND FOUNTAIN DELICACIES

SCENES

Locale of the entire play is the palatial home of Seth Lord in exclusive Suburban Philadelphia.

ACT I:

Scene: A Friday morning in late June.

ACT II:

Scene 1: Later that evening.

Scene 2: Still later that night.

ACT III:

Scene: The next morning.

The Cast

(In order of appearance)

Tracy Lord	Lorraine Ell
Dinah Lord	Rita Saladino
Margaret Lord	Ruth Tuggle
Alexander (Sandy) Lord	John Supple
Thomas, the butler	Donald Neumann
William (Uncle Willie) Tracy	Roy White
Elizabeth (Liz) Imbrie	Louise Ercanbrack
Macauley (Mike) Connor	Dick VanDyke
George Kittredge	Frank Caughron
C. K. Dexter Haven	Herbert Depke
Seth Lord	Lew Selby
Mac, the gardener	A Voice
Doctor Parsons	Eugene Barrick, Jr.

VERMILION AT NORTH
DANVILLE, ILLINOIS

Jewelry . Silver . Gifts . Watches . Diamonds