From The President . . .

A warm Red Mask welcome to 1980-81's first show, One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest!

This challenging and exciting play brings you dramatic entertainment that will hold you spellbound. We are extremely happy to have James Beebe return to our theater in a directorial capacity and add his unique talent in leading an outstanding cast. As you know, Jim has become known throughout Illinois for his Sunshine II production company. You will applaud the resulting efforts of our large company and stage crew in bringing this excellent production to our stage.

It is also with great pleasure that we announce the installation of our beautiful new seating. Red Mask Players is very grateful to Dr. Joe Borgen and the Danville Area Community College staff for making it possible to acquire these wonderful chairs. We know this great improvement will provide our audiences more comfort while attending performances of outstanding stage plays this season and in seasons to come.

Our sincere thanks to you — our audience — for making it possible for Red Mask Players to prosper in our community.

Sincerely,
Max Sperling

Harold Judy Memorial Fund . . .

We sing no sad songs for Harold Judy, utter no sad lines. He wouldn't want them. He lived every moment to the fullest, abiding by the philosophy that it matters not how many years there are in life but rather how much life there is in the years. Harold would not have us dim the stage he helped to light up so warmly. Our personal tribute to him will be to keep those stage lights aglow.

Bob Wright

The Harold Judy Memorial Fund, a non-profit trust fund, has been established as a living and continuing tribute to the man whose dedication to Red Mask Players spanned more than 25 years. Co-sponsored by Red Mask and The Commercial-News (where Harold worked from 1949-1977), the fund will be used to perpetuate the dramatic arts in Danville and to provide assistance in that area to young people.

Contributions to the fund may be sent to Red Mask Players, P.O. Box 814, Danville, Illinois 61832, or to The Commercial-News, P.O. Box 589, Danville. Checks should be made payable to: Harold Judy Memorial Fund.

From The Director . . .

Dear Theatregoers,

"When life itself seems lunatic, who knows where madness lies? Perhaps to be too practical is madness. To surrender dreams — this may be madness. To seek treasure where there is only trash. Too much sanity may be madness. And maddest of all, to see life as it is and not as it should be." — The words of Don Miguel De Cervantes as written by Dale Wasserman, playwright of Man Of La Mancha and One Flew Over The Cuckoo's Nest.

Mr. Wasserman has provided a rare opportunity — through Red Mask and Sunshine II — "to see life as it really is . . ." And again an excellent cast has sallied forth to bring you closer to that life on the inside.

Cuckoo's Nest is perhaps one of the most challenging pieces of theatre to be presented in Danville. I salute the entire cast and crew for their dedication in developing a sincere look at that life.

Whether you fly east or whether you fly west — join us now in the cuckoo's nest.

Sincerely,
Jim Beebe

He is currently employed as a custodian at the Danville Elks Club and his hobbies are baseball and music.

FRED LEGG (Scanlon) made his last stage appearance some 20 years ago as the Spook in The Spook And Mrs. Leffingwell. His last Red Mask participation was as co-builder of the set for Curious Savage. Fred is Maintenance Foreman at the V.A. Medical Center. His interests are reading, golf, and tennis. He and his wife have three daughters and one son.

TERRY WALTERS (Cheswick) was last seen on stage as Mr. Bumble in the Danville Light Opera production of Oliver and says he gets daily acting experience portraying Ichabod Crane in his role as "headmaster" at Tilton School. Terry claims to be an ancestor of the first European horse thief and con-man — which may explain why he feels he is extremely well-qualified to be a part of this production!

On Stage . . .

BRAD SMITH (Martini) is also new to Red Mask but has performed with other groups including Danville Light Opera where he was last seen in The Sound Of Music. He has also worked in Oklahoma, The Sound Of Music, and Man Of La Mancha with Sunshine II, Ltd. and was in Oklahoma, Flight Into Danger, and Annie Get Your Gun at Bismarck-Henning High School. JAMES STUART (Dr. Spivey) was active with Red Mask some 20 years ago at the Palace Theatre and in recent seasons has been a loyal audience participant. Jim is an accountant at Clifford Kesler and Co., Ltd. and enjoys tennis, racquetball, and theatre. He and his wife Margery (who is an R.N. in the Nursery at Lakeview Medical Center) have two sons and two daughters.

MARTY HOWREY (Candy) is making her first stage appearance at Red Mask but recently worked as Chairman of Tickets and Box Office for Snow White And The Seven Dwarfs. Her children John, age 10, and Meg, age 8, had roles in that production. Marty's hobbies are tennis and sewing. Her husband, Dave, is part owner of Cash and Carry Lumber.

JENNI TYLER (Sandra) has also served as Assistant Stage Manager for Cuckoo's Nest. She is an Occupational Health Nurse at Teepak and resides in Catlin with her husband, Larry, and five-year-old son, B.J. Jenni is particularly excited about her role as Sandra since she gets to make her entrance through the window. In her last Red Mask role she played Evelyn, the TV announcer, in The Secret Affairs Of Mildred Wild for which she was never on stage. She states, "Watch out if and when I ever get to come through the door!"
