From The Director ...

Over the past few weeks we have been totally involved in putting together a production of On Golden Pond that will dispell the concept that only a Fonda and a Hepburn can create characters like Norman and Ethel Thayer. Be assured that we have a creative and dedicated cast and equally talented behind-the-scenes people who have worked very hard to bring you a live, real, and complete story of the warmth and tenderness of the golden years intertwined with the problems of growing up for both a daughter and a son-to-be.

Special thanks to the cast and crews for their time, energy, and creative talents. They have made it a real pleasure.

And now, whether you've seen it before or you're seeing it for the first time, please sit back and enjoy as we bring you On Golden Pond.

Director . . .

JAMES D. BEEBE

Jim Beebe is well-recognized for excellence in community theatre . . . not only in Danville but in Central Illinois and beyond. He is President/Director of Sunshine II Productions, Ltd., Danville's summer dinner theatre, which has presented shows like See How They Run, Man of LaMancha, Barefoot in the Park, Fantasticks, and many more. Jim has directed several DLO productions and has directed Wait Until Dark, Butterflies Are Free, and One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest at Red Mask. He has also performed at Red Mask in Come Blow Your Horn and Plaza Suite. Currently the Speech and Theatre Instructor at Danville High School, Jim has taught music in the Danville and Ridge Farm schools. His wife, Joy, is a music teacher, performer (Cabaret, Fiddler on the Roof, and others), and is a partner in Sunshine II. Their children, Danielle and Steve, are both active in music and theatre at Danville High School. Both recently performed in Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat. Jim's other interests include the Danville Elks Lodge 332, where he is a Past Exalted Ruler, and the popcorn business at the home farm in Cissna Park. A play rehearsal just wouldn't be complete without Beebe's Gourmet Popcorn!

Stage Manager . . .

HARRY FERGUSON

Just because you don't see him on the stage doesn't mean he isn't here! But for this production Harry has moved to the other side of the lights to act as Stage Manager. His on-stage credits (too voluminous to mention in their entirety!) include roles in The Fantasticks, See How They Run, and Cabaret with Sunshine II; The Pajama Game with Danville Light Opera; Born Yesterday, Heaven Can Wait, Chapter Two, and No Sex Please, We're British with Red Mask. Harry also has a Katy Award for his role in Under Papa's Picture. He recently performed in a documentary film in Indianapolis and will soon be participating in professional auditions in Chicago.

Producer . . .

JIM KNOBLAUCH

On Golden Pond is Jim's first experience at producing a play. He claims the most rewarding aspect has been getting to audition the loons. Jim's first association with Red Mask was as Randall Patrick McMurphy in One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest for which he received a Katy. Since then he has also appeared as Joe Pendleton in Heaven Can Wait and in the Sunshine II production of Barefoot in the Park. Jim is currently serving on the Red Mask Board of Directors and is employed as a News Reporter at WDNL/WDAN.

A Word From The President...

We welcome all this year's members! Our membership campaign was very successful. We are delighted to have so many of you renew your memberships and to have so many new members this season. Thank you for your support.

When the Board of Directors selected On Golden Pond as one of this year's plays, it had had very little publicity. It was only when the movie opened and received so many awards that it became so well-known. As with One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest, the play is not like the movie and Jim and his cast and crew have not intended that it should be. They have worked hard for two months, and Jim Beebe's directing abilities and the talent and dedication of the cast and crews have combined to bring you a production you will long remember.

So sit back, relax, and enjoy On Golden Pond!

Welcome Super Sixty...

Red Mask is very happy to welcome Danville's Super Sixties to two special matinee performances of On Golden Pond on February 5th and 12th. A special thanks to Second National Bank for their support of Red Mask in bringing these performances to you.

On February 5th the role of Billy Ray is being played by Scott Darby. The part is being performed by Jason Scarlett on February 12th.

And now . . . please enjoy this warm, funny, and touching production of On Golden Pond.

FRED LEGG (Norman): The role of the less-than-stable Scanlon in One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest was Fred's first acting experience in a good many years. It won him a Katy and brought out the actor in his blood! Since Cuckoo's Nest Fred has appeared as Mr. Jordan in Heaven Can Wait and as Henry, the old actor, in The Fantasticks with Sunshine II. He is Maintenance Foreman at the V.A. Medical Center. Fred and his wife, Carol, have four grown children and two grandchildren — Chad and Jake Supp. The acting bug must be passed on because Chad has performed in three Red Mask Children's Plays!

BARBARA STOVER (Ethel): When she isn't busy swatting daddy-long-legs, Barbara teaches speech, acting, and rhetoric in the Liberal Arts Division of Danville Area Community College. Her last appearance on the Red Mask stage was as Veta Louise in Harvey. Barbara is currently on the Red Mask Board and is directing the spring production of Deathtrap. Of her involvement in On Golden Pond Barbara states, "Not many roles come along for us 'mature' types. I feel very fortunate to be playing Ethel Thayer."

BILL BRANDY (Charlie): Since coming to Danville in the fall of 1978, Bill has participated in several Red Mask and Danville Light Opera productions including Born Yesterday, Heaven Can Wait, and The Pajama Game. Bill is Chief of Audiology and Speech Pathology at the V.A. Medical Center and served this year as Red Mask's Membership Chairman. His wife, Maryann, works at INAME where she is assistant editor of their monthly magazine. They have two sons: sophomore Steve who is active in dramatics and broadcasting and 5th grader Matt who is in the Hillbilly Band at Edison School.

On Stage . . .

REBECCA BROWN (Chelsea): On Golden Pond is Rebecca's first Red Mask venture, but she was involved with the Bread and Roses Theatre Group in Chicago. Before returning to Danville in 1980 she lived in Washington, D.C., Boston, San Francisco, and Chicago. Rebecca is the Program Coordinator of the Women's Alternative Shelter. Her daughter, Ginny Christine Mulholland, is a 7th grader at Holy Family School and performed last summer in the DLO production of Hans Christian Andersen.

SCOTT DARBY (Billy — January 28, February 4, 10 and 12): Although On Golden Pond is his first "adult" play, Scott is not new to the Red Mask stage. He has performed in Daniel Boone and Rumpelstiltskin with Red Mask Children's Theatre. He has also been in several school plays including Snow White, Peter Pan, Scrooge, The Ransom of Red Chief, Vaudeville My Home, and Dracula. A 7th grader at North Ridge Middle School, Scott is the youngest of five children. His parents are Jim and Caroline Darby.

JASON SCARLETT (Billy — January 29, February 5, 6 and 11): A 7th grader from Catlin, Jason is making his first appearance at Red Mask. He has participated in three church plays and been involved in two literary contests. Jason's interests include reading, basketball, and all sports. He has one brother and is the son of Wayne and Carolyne Scarlett.

PAT THOMPSON (Bill): Born and raised in the St. Louis area, Pat and his wife Debbie have been in Danville less than a year. Pat is a News Reporter at WDAN/WDNL and has a B.A. in Speech Communications from Southern Illinois University. He appeared in numerous high school productions. His university theatre credits include roles as Mr. Glass in Slow Dance on the Killing Ground, Petey in The Birthday Party, an Artisan in A Midsummer Night's Dream, and Dr. Montague in The Haunting of Hill House.
