Scene

The action takes place in two Acts in Lowake, a small west Texas town in one of the hottest Julys on record.

Produced by Special Arrangement with Samuel French, Inc.

There will be a ten minute intermission between Acts.
 No Smoking in any area of the building please.

From the President

Here I am in the middle of my second term as President and I can't help looking around at all the changes and feeling a sense of pride...not for myself, but for being a part of something that is growing and expanding towards the new century. It is because of the work of many that the Kathryn Randolph Theater will stand to provide many more decades of theatrical entertainment.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of those who share the vision. There are too many of you to name individually but you know who you are. I hope that you also know how your dedication inspires me everyday. This theater is truly blessed.

Keeping from being morose, Red Mask Players proudly presents Del Shore's Daddy's Dyin'...Who's got the Will?. It is one of those rare shows that will make you hoot with laughter and shed a tear...often at the same time. Forget the cold of January...forget the snow and join the Turnover family in one of the hottest summers on record. You'll take the sunshine with you.

From the Director

Every good show teaches you something about yourself. This year has taught me a lot...maybe more than I want to know. I love to think of myself as a crusty old b@$%#d, but maybe I'm not as bad as I thought.

This summer I directed Cat on a Hot Tin Roof and learned that I have a sensitive heart. This fall I directed Fiddler on the Roof and learned that I have a nurturing soul. Thanks to Red Mask, I now get the opportunity to fuse the two together with this show. Daddy's Dyin' is one of those shows that you can't help but love. It's about family...not the 'Leave it to Beaver' type but real jealousy ridden, back stabbin', cat fightin', reconcilin', lovin' family. I can't be the only one who came from this type of background (my therapist says I'm not).

It was pure magic watching this cast transform. This could be the most realistic show that you have ever seen at Red Mask because somewhere, somehow, we actually BECAME family. The cast parties for this show started about three weeks from casting night. They were all family get-togethers: trimming Sara Lee's tree, enjoying an old-fashioned family Christmas at Buford's, eating the holiday roast with Harmony and his mama. We loved being together, got sick of each other, then kissed and made up the next day.

I hope that you come away from this show with some of the lessons that this show has taught me. There is nothing more important than family. Love of family conquers all. And the most startling (to me and everyone that knows me)...DAMN, I'm a nice guy!

Production Team

William Satterfield (Director/Producer) - "What a year I'm having!" After several successful bouts with the stage, including directing this year's Cat on a Hot Tin Roof for TFO and Fiddler on the Roof for DLO (people are still talking about his Nachum the Beggar), Bill returns to Red Mask to direct this show...one of his favorites. He hopes everyone enjoys the show and would like to thank God and his mama.

Sue Harden (Stage Manager) This is Sue's second time around as Stage Manager with Director Boy Bill having previously worked with him on How the Other Half Loves. She was last seen on stage as Claire in Rumors and as Kathryn Troy in last season's Here Lies Jeremy Troy. When away from the theater, Sue is a legal secretary for Dukes, Martin, Ryan, Meyer, and Krapf Ltd. She would like to thank her husband, B.J., for his love and support.

Shawna Atchison (Co-Producer) Shawna jumps into her second production at Red Mask after her debut performance as Marie Louise Ducotel in this year's season opener My Three Angels. She is currently finishing her second year at D.A.C.C. and plans to attend Columbia College in Chicago to pursue a career in media.

On Stage

Dave Downing (Buford) There is an old adage that goes "Old soldiers never die, etc." Well, the same can be said for old actors, only with a slight twist: OLD ACTORS NEVER DIE, THEY JUST PLAY OLDER ROLES! "I would like to thank Bill for casting me in such a great role in an absolutely wonderful play and it is not type casting, Lisa!" This past year has found Dave playing the Rabbi in DLO's Fiddler on the Roof, Carlino in Red Mask's Wait Until Dark, and Nathan Detroit in the Beef House's Guys and Dolls. "Most of all I want to thank my lovely bride Marty for all of her love and support, for without her I would not and could not have the time to pursue something else that I love so much, THEATER!"

Tanya E. Golden (Mama Wheelis) Tanya is 24 years old and greatly enjoys theater. She spends her day as an Advertising Account Executive for the Commercial News (your town, your people, your paper). After debuting with Sunshine II Productions last summer as Sue Lawson in Not Now, Darling, Tanya has decided that Danville Theater is a great place to be. This performance marks her debut on the Red Mask stage as the 80 year old feisty Mama Wheelis and she appreciates the opportunity to be involved in Red Mask and working with a great bunch of people. She sends out her thanks and love to her two sons Evan and Daniel, God, family, friends, and her mentor John Dowers.

Nancy Livingston (Evalita) Nancy is making her first appearance on the Red Mask stage. She previously portrayed Hodel in the DLO production of Fiddler on the Roof. She is an attorney with the Vermilion County Public Defender's office. She would like to thank her children, Bob, Sarah, and Maggie, for being so wonderful. Special thanks to Israel Gonzalez for his love and support through all the rehearsals.

Lisa Lovelace (Marlene) Lisa was most recently seen as Yente in DLO's Fiddler on the Roof. She has appeared in a number of roles for Red Mask, including her Katy winning performance as Mrs. Chauvenet in last season's Harvey. In real life, Lisa is an attorney specializing in criminal law.

Tresa 'Sam' McBride (Sara Lee) Sam has most recently been seen as Golde in Fiddler on the Roof for Danville Light Opera. She would like to thank her wonderful children for their support and love. In her spare time, Sam loves ridin' horseback, ropin' steers, playin' fiddle, and being an Account Executive and on-air personality for WIAI radio.

Lorraine W. Morgan (Lurlene) Lorraine comes to us from Bonnie Scotland where she trained as a physical therapist. After a few years in London, she and her husband felt like a change and arrived in Danville four years ago. She admires Red Mask for its bravery in casting her in her debut performance and she would like to thank David and the staff at USMC Rehab for helping her to prepare.

Joe Sermersheim (Orville) Born and raised in Danville, Joe is the father of three girls: Amy, Katie, and Emily. He has been married for eleven years to Teri, who is the best wife and mother in the world because you have to be to put up with a tavern owner! He is the owner of Fatman's Warehouse in downtown Danville. Joe would like to thank his parents, Bob and Carol, and brothers Paul, Steve, and Charlie for giving him the inspiration to do a play...it was constant comedy around the house when he was growing up! Joe would like to give special thanks to Lorraine Morgan (Lurlene) who told him that he should read for this part.

Steven Ward (Harmony) After tap dancing on Director Bill's last nerve all autumn long, Steve decided it was time for Round Two. After his touching and sensitive portrayal as Perchik in DLO's Fiddler on the Roof, Steve makes his Red Mask debut. Having lived everywhere between Texas and Alaska, he is often stopped on the streets for his brilliant performances with the Malaysian Dance Theater. In more serious moments, he plays violin and guitar and ponders the success of the Spice Girls. Steve would like to thank his wonderful parents and supportive family for their love.
