Beneath the Grease Paint

LIZ MILLER (Mollie Ralston) Liz has appeared for Red Mask in two previous productions, "Happiest Millionaire" and "Black Chiffon". Besides giving her time and talent for us, she is a busy mother of two small children and is the current Vice President of Red Mask Women's Guild. Liz is also a "Girl Friday" to Red Mask behind the scenes.

CECIL GARNER (Giles Ralston) Cecil first played the sheriff in "Bus Stop" for Red Mask. He is a cost estimator for Bohn Aluminum. We're glad to have him back again and look forward to many more returns to our stage.

LOU RONEY (Christopher Wren) This is the first theater work Lou has ever engaged in. We're always happy for new faces and think he has done extremely well. He is an announcer for W.I.T.Y. He previously worked in radio in Brazil, Indiana and Pennsylvania.

PATSY RAGLE (Mrs. Boyle) Patsy is appearing for the first time for Red Mask. She worked very hard on properties for "Girls in 509". While majoring in Speech and Theater at Indiana University she appeared in several plays. Patsy has one child and teaches Language Arts at East Park Junior High School.

LEONARD VON BERG (Major Metcalf) "Mouse Trap" marks the first Red Mask production for Leonard. He has appeared previously in G.E.'s Minstrel Show and the G.E. Frolics. He is employed in the Order Service Section of G.E. We are looking forward to seeing Leonard in many more Red Mask productions. He is a very enthusiastic newcomer.

MARGIT WEVANG (Miss Casewell) Margit is a student at DJC. She has appeared for Red Mask in "Girls in 509". Margit loves theater work and was very active in church and school productions while living in Chicago. She is a very promising newcomer for Red Mask.

JERRY OVALL (Paravicini) Jerry has appeared in three previous Red Mask productions. "Witness for the Prosecution", "Man in the Dog Suit", and "Third Best Sport". He has worked in many technical capacities with Danville Light Opera. While in Schlarman High School Jerry appeared in "Night of Jan. 16th". He is employed in the continuity department of W.I.T.Y. We're happy to have Jerry in another production.

DAVE RENO (Detective Sergeant Trotter) Dave is an announcer for W.D.A.N. Although this is his second Red Mask performance, he is a veteran of the theater. He first appeared in "Girls in 509". "Rosie", as his friends affectionately call him, was active in theater work before coming to Danville. We hope he'll be with us a long time to share his talent.

We welcome with open arms members who want to help with productions. If there is a little of the "ham" in you, come try out for a Red Mask Play. Next production is "The Rainmaker". Watch the newspaper for tryout times. We would also like to have you for backstage work. Why not give it a whirl? Call HI 2-0023 anytime after 6 p.m.
