Story of the Play

"Everybody Loves Opal" is a hilarious comedy of an adventure in the life of the eternal optimist Opal Kronkie. Opal invites the girl with the pea-pod brain, the man drained of all decency, and the midget machiavelli into her home. These three stooges plot to cover Opal's life with insurance and then "clean up" after they "knock her off." Attempts at disposing of the old girl turn into uproarious havoc only to finally prove that everybody loves Opal.

The majority of those responding to our questionnaire concerning two performances on the final Sat. night were in favor of it. Therefore, the Board of Directors has decided that next year there will be only one Sun. performance, a matinee, and there will be two performances on the final Sat., one at 5:00 p.m. and one at 9:00 p.m.

Tryouts for the summer Children's Play, The Princess and the Swineherd, will be at 4:00 on May 9 and 10 at the theater, with performances on June 15 at 7:30 p.m. and June 16 at 2:00 p.m. The play, by Gwendolen Seiler, includes some music, with lyrics and music by Conrad Seiler. It will be directed by Jean Lewis. Children completing the fourth grade this year through junior high age are invited to try out.

A Recognition Party, to honor all who have participated in Red Mask during the past year, is planned for Sat., June 16, at 7:00 at the Boat Club. Dinner and entertainment are included in the plans.
