SCENES

The action of the play takes place in London, alternating between the office of a famous lawyer, Sir Wilfrid Robarts and a Central Criminal Court trial room.

ACT I

The chambers of Sir Wilfrid Robarts, Q.C. Late afternoon.

ACT II

The Central Criminal Court, better known as Old Bailey, six weeks later.

ACT III

Scene 1—The chambers of Sir Wilfrid. The same evening.
Scene 2—The Old Bailey. Next morning.

Coffee will be served in the lobby between Acts 1 and 2.

The Red Mask Women's Guild, a new subsidiary of Red Mask Players, has been organized to aid and augment fun and fund raising for the new building project of our 25-year-old community drama group. This welcome addition to the Danville theatrical family is comprised of interested women of Red Mask who have vowed to see our cultural fortunes increase to attract audiences from throughout central Illinois.

Members of the new organization serving refreshments in the lobby are: Mesdames F. L. Kreidler, Don Bailey, Kenneth Toy, Ed Fonner, Bill Schatz, Harlan Johnson, Herbert Harper, Roy Wolfe, Russel Gene Pollitt, Robert Taylor, Bob Cross, Harold Judy, Oscar J. Michael, Richard Bruck, and Miss Nancy Grubb.
