Director: Betty Sue Kreidler

Betty Sue won a Katy for "See How They Run". She has also received four merit awards. She is a Past President and Secretary of Red Mask and presently on the Board of Directors.

Talent doesn't stop with Betty Sue, her son, 17, plays trumpet with a band called "America, Inc." And the newest member, at 15 months, is keeping everyone on their toes at the Kreidler house.

Stage Manager: Norma Day

In the last six years Norma has been in several plays, including "Never Too Late", "Unwicked Witch", "Delicate Balance" and "Come Blow Your Horn" for which she won a merit award. She is presently on the Board of Directors, and was Chairman of the Children's Play in the 1971-1972 season.

Producers: Dwight Sherer and Fred Janesky

Mr. Sherer has done the set design and construction for such plays as "Love In E Flat", "Street Car Named Desire", "Monique", "Three Bags Full", and "Delicate Balance".

Mr. Janesky produced "Cactus Flower" and "Barefoot In The Park" as well as working backstage for many plays. He has been Membership and Ticket Chairman and also served on the Board of Directors.

Mary, Mary

Story of the Play

The action centers around Bob and Mary McKellaway, whose divorce will soon be final. A problem with Bob's taxes brings them together after a nine month separation. All the old bitterness and anger flares up again with yet another ingredient added. Bob has a fiancée Tiffany Richards, and Mary meets a dashing movie star, Dirk Winston. As Bob becomes more confused about his feelings, Mary becomes more confident about hers. Then Oscar Nelson, Bob's lawyer and best friend, steps in to really get the ball going.

On Stage Tonight . . .

Jim Gill (Bob McKellaway)

Current Red Mask President and member of the Board of Directors, Jim has utilized many talents. He received a Katy for his performance in "Cactus Flower" plus merit awards for "Any Wednesday", and "Tender Trap". Director of "Come Blow Your Horn" and "Love In E Flat". He also wrote a three act play, "Goodnight, Morningstar" which was given in August of 1970. He is the Assistant City Editor at the Commercial-News.

Susan Hussmann

Susan has taken care of tickets and has worked in the box office for the last two years. She has also been seen in "Three Bags Full" and "Come Blow Your Horn". Recently married, Susan works as secretary for her husband, Lou, at Hussta, Inc.

Aggie Christman

Although this is Aggie's first Red Mask Play, she was in Danville Light Opera's production of "Hello Dolly" as Ernestina. Aggie became acquainted with Red Mask through the Dramatics Work Shop. She and her husband, Richard, are both teachers. Aggie teaches fifth grade at McMillan School in Westville. He teaches chemistry at Danville Junior College.

Bill Schatz

Veteran of many years, Bill has been a past President, Secretary, and Treasurer of Red Mask. He won a Katy for "Calculated Risk" and was in many plays such as, "Barefoot In The Park", "Stalag 17", "Pure As The Driven Snow" and "Lilly The Felon's Daughter". He is presently on the Board of Directors. Bill is the Pre-Vocational Coordinator for the Special Education Department at Danville High School.

Jim Wingo

Also making his debut he has not been in a play since high school. A graduate of Oregon State is a Systems Analyst at Hyster Co. He has been in Danville for one and one-half years.

Red Mask News Notes

By attending this play tonight you are missing such television shows as 'All in the Family', 'Mission Impossible', 'The Brady Bunch' and other re-runs. Of course, between the commercials you might have been brought up to date on the progress of the presidential campaign.

It is true that these television broadcasts do offer some entertainment but the question is, is the entertainment offered or forced? While watching this play tonight Red Mask will not have to use a laugh sound track to tell you when to laugh, a television does. Red Mask respects your intelligence and appreciates your being here. You can laugh at this comedy if and when you want to, after all it's your funny bone we are trying to tickle. So snicker or howl and forget that TV program you missed. Remember, you can only see it twenty more times in the next five years.

From the Director:

We were fortunate in casting very fine, co-operative, intelligent, and talented people who worked diligently and best utilized the suggestions I gave them.

I threw twenty years of experience in the theatre at them and they accepted it and used it, inspiring me with their ability to grasp so much, so quickly.

I'm pleased and very proud to present them to you this evening.
