FROM THE PRESIDENT . . .

Greetings, and welcome to Red Mask's winter production, To Gillian on Her 37th Birthday. Gillian transports us to a summer on the East Coast and a tender view inside people's lives.

I would like to express my appreciation to Jim Beebe, and his cast and crew for their many dedicated hours they have spent in preparing the play for our enjoyment.

Tryouts for our spring production, The Importance of Being Earnest are February 5th and 6th at 7:30 p.m. Tryouts are open to the public. On or off stage, Red Mask is a wonderful experience. Please come and join us.

And now, a play is not really a play without you the audience—so come with us to summer and the beach.

FROM THE DIRECTOR ...

To Gillian on Her 37th Birthday is the first major work by Michael Brady, and it has well-dimensioned characters, solid conflict, piquant writing and gives off a warm, affirmative glow. To Gillian is a celebration of the breadth of human compassion, told in a poetry of everyday language and realized in often heartbreakingly human terms. To Gillian is peppered with sharp, evenhanded observations about tenuous ties that connect husbands and wives and parents and children. To Gillian is an exceptionally moving account of how one man finally comes to reconcile himself to the loss of a loved one.

Our cast is a superb blend of seasoned thespians and foot light novices who invite you to spend an August weekend with them at David's cottage on a small island off the coast of New England. Our experienced crew will help you hear the surf, smell the salt-water, feel the sea breeze, and catch a falling star. Come out of the darkness and coldness of winter and be warmed by this touching drama which asks us to look to that which endures—The sea, the stars, memory, and the human heart. These are the eternalists ...

DIRECTOR . . .

James D. Beebe

James D. Beebe is a past president of Red Mask and is currently serving as 1st Vice-President. Jim has just completed his thirteenth season as Producer/Director of Sunshine II Productions, Ltd., Danville area's summertime dinner-theatre. A former English, T.V. and Acting teacher, Jim recently "retired" to manage the family business, Beebe/Stevenson Popcorn Company, Inc. His wife, Joy, teaches General Music at Northeast and Meade Park Schools and Fundamentals of Music at DACC. The Beebe's have two children: Danielle, in her first year teaching Elementary Music in Palos Park, and Stephen, a Junior Music Theatre major at Illinois State University.

STAGE MANAGER . . .

Marty Howrey

Active both on stage and backstage at Red Mask and Sunshine II for the past 8 years, Marty was last seen as Olive in the female version of The Odd Couple. She is currently treasurer for Red Mask and on the board of Danville Area Arts Council. When not doing theatre work, Marty is a Kelly Girl working at Bohn Heat Transfer. She and husband Dave are proud parents of John (a freshman at ISU) and Meg (a ballet student studying at the Joffrey in N.Y. City).

PRODUCER . . .

Sue Ann Crick

Sue Ann has been involved with Red Mask for the past eight years and is currently 2nd Vice-President. Last seen on stage as Florence in the female version of The Odd Couple, Sue Ann says producing this show has not been nearly as exhausting as cleaning up after Olive. She and her husband Ron have two children Josh and Jennifer.

ON STAGE ...

LARRY NORTON (David): Larry has performed in two previous Red Mask Productions Night of January 16th and I Never Sang for My Father and was stage manager for Norman, Is That You? Larry is a Red Mask Board member and lives in Danville with wife Gayle and daughters Shay and Sherry. He is employed by Bohn Heat Transfer.

AMY JONES (Rachel): This is Amy's first appearance on stage. She has however, worked backstage on various productions at North Vermillion High School where she is a sophomore honor student. Amy is also active in sports and S.A.D.D. She hopes her family and friends enjoy the show and thanks them for enduring all those late night rehearsals and occasional early morning crabbiness!

AMY TURNER (Cindy): Nineteen year old Amy is no stranger to Red Mask. She was introduced to Red Mask Children's Theatre at age seven and has been actively involved with theatre ever since. She has also been involved with community plays (Babies Having Babies, and Save Chicago). While acting is her first love, working at Hill's and attending DACC take up the majority of her time. She plans to be a lawyer.

PAM RAY (Kevin): This is Pam's first appearance as a Red Mask Player, but she is certainly no newcomer to the stage. She has appeared in several Sunshine II productions—most recently this past summer in The Mystery of Edwin Drood. Pam did a most efficient job last season manning Red Mask's box office but prefers to be under the stagelights! She and her husband N.P. have two children, Heather and Erick.

ON STAGE ...

TERRY WALTERS (Paul): Terry returns to the Red Mask stage after a three year absence. The professional and personal life changes he has experienced during this time are greater than space can provide. Suffice it to say, this show has been therapeutic—thanks Red Mask.

GAYE GARNER (Esther): Gaye is a happily active Red Masker, Public Defender, wife and accounting student. She has performed in a variety of roles and backstage functions for Red Mask over the past five years. Each new role becomes her favorite and Esther is no exception—even if she is bossy!

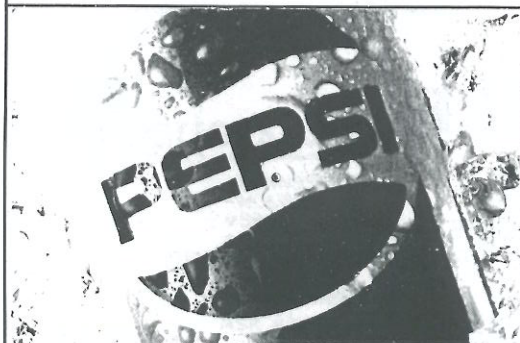

BEVERLY MCCALLISTER (Gillian): This is Beverly's first Red Mask performance. She was on the props committee for The Odd Couple (she never wants to see another green sandwich!) She and her husband Leonard have two daughters (special thanks to Dawn and Brandi for all those spur of the moment rehearsals!). She has been employed by the Palmer Bank for the past nine years.
